They express the opinion that the order will trespass their personal liberty and prevent their affording visitors from foreign navies the wines which they are accustomed to on their own ves-

The order was hailed with joy here to-day by the prohibition forces, who declare it will have a great influence in the furtherance of the temperance

MRS. LILLIAN STEVENS, W. C. T. U. HEAD, IS DEAD

Spent Many Years in Temperance Cause and Was Busy to End of Her Career.

PORTLAND, Me., April 6 .- Mrs. Lillian M. N. Stevens, President of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union, died to-day. She had been ill for several weeks with kidney trouble.

Mrs. Stevens, who was born in Dover, Me., seventy years ago, continued to the last the temperance work to which she had devoted most of her life. Her mind remained clear, and late last week she was able to dictate correspondence in connection with the duties of her office. With her when the end came were her husband, Michael Stevens; her daughter, Mrs. Gertrude S. Leavitt of this city, and Miss Anna sent of the National W. C. T. U.

Mrs. Stevens's last active work was a trip to Washington last December in the interests of the movement for a prohibitory amendment to the Federal constitution.

SCULPTOR'S DAUGHTER WINS ANNULMENT OF MARRIAGE TO PRIEST

Marie J. Niehaus no Longer Wife of Churchman Alleged to Be Insane.

A final decree annulling the marriage of Marie J. Nichaus, daughter WASHINGTON, April 8.—Secretary of Charles Henry Niehaus, the sculptor, to Dennis J. Driscoll, former aspoholic liquors in the navy, effective sistant rector of the Church of the Blessed Sacrament at New Rochelle. ed in naval and other circles here was recorded in the office of the cierk to-day. The order, one of the most of Westahester County at White sweeping ever promulgated by the Plains to-day. A preliminary decree had been granted by Justice Mills of the Supreme Court Dec. 30, 1913, on cers, but will bar all alcoholic liquors the ground that the former priest was from every ship and shore station of the navy. Surgeon-Gen. Braisted suit. He was served by publication and his present whereabouts is supposed to be known only to Frank S.

Mount Hope Retreat, Arlington, Md. Three years ago he seemed to have recovered and undertook his religious duties again at New Rochelle. His conduct there and especially his apparent forgetfulness of his work in his infatuation for Miss Niehaus led the rector to cause his removal.

With Miss Niehaus, Driscoil went to Jersey City Dec. 4, 1911, and they were married at the City Hall by Justice of the Peace Frank P. Lehane. The husband left the Niehaus residence, where the couple made their home for ten days, and disappeared. He returned, not only for one day. Testimony was given before Justice Mills that the former priest was not cured of his insanity and did not know what he was doing when he married.
